WHO IS GOOD ENOUGH?

Introductory Thought There is an old saying that captures the dilemma of those who are trying to live holy lives. It goes something like this: "I'm humble and proud of it." How can we strive for holiness without falling prey to the pride that undermines holiness? We will never mix pride with holiness if we realize and remember that holiness comes from God alone.

Reading I Sirach 15:15-20 The Bible portrays faith as a paradoxical partnership between the individual and God. We must seek God's will of our own free choice, but we can only do God's will with the help of God. God must give us what we choose and we must choose what God gives us.

Reading II 1 Corinthians 2:6-10 We cannot imagine all the things that lie ahead when we choose the way of holiness. But God always gives us the light that we need for the journey of faith. Each step we take brings us closer to the mystery of God's grace

Reading III Matthew 5:17-37 Why did Jesus make such extraordinary demand of his disciples? He put wrong thinking in the same category with wrong doing in order to make it clear that we can never become holy in our own wisdom and strength. Our holiness finally comes as a gift from God.

CLOSING THOUGHT Life is filled with strange ironies. Neither happiness nor holiness can be won by our own efforts. The most important things in life come to all of us indirectly. And we are blessed only when we are a blessing to others. As we have said, we will never confuse pride with holiness if we realize and remember that holiness comes from God alone.

Black History Month - While a student at St Peter's school in Quincy, Servant of God Augustus Tolton felt called by God. Augustus persisted in his vocational pursuit despite barriers due to his race. Rejected by every seminary in the country, Augustus studied for the priesthood in Rome. Ordained in 1886, he returned to the United States to minister in Quincy and later in Chicago.

6th Sunday in OT – 12 February 2017

Free will. The freedom we all have is not a license to murder, be unfaithful, or tell lies. We can do these things. But we can choose not to do any of them. If we trust God – and God's saving plan for us and for the world – then we will want to be just, to act with righteousness, and to be in right relationship with God, with others, and with the whole of creation. Marty Haugen picks up the words of Saint Paul to the Church in Corinth in "Eye Has Not Seen". If your parish does not sing it this Sunday, look for it in your songbook before or after Mass. Hum it all the way to the end. [Online: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rRyOS0nZr7s>.] "Give us the mind of Jesus."

- What have I heard today about being right with God?
- What have I been taught today about right relationship with family and friends?
- How will I choose to trust God this day, this week?

As members of this parish community prepare for Confirmation we the faithful journey with them. You have called us to share in the mission of your son, a mission to bring the Good News of your reconciling love to a world of sin and suffering. Send your Holy Spirit upon us, so that we might be faithful to the anointing for mission that we have receiving We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen
