An Act of Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from
You. Amen.*

New Building Fund Raising Committee Meeting Monday 8th 6:30pm in the Parish Center Kitchen. Come join us!

5th Sunday in O T - B: February 7th: In today's readings we have seen that Jesus made all things new when he came and suffered, died, and rose for us. He brings deep meaning to our suffering, and ultimately desired to heal us of all of our sin and brokenness. He comes into each of our lives to heal us and raise us to new life in him.

Prayer: Let's reflect on these words from the Gospel reading from today. Call to mind the scene of Jesus healing Peter's mother-in-law. Then imagine the whole town coming to his doorstep with all of their needs for healing. What needs do you need to bring to the Lord in your own life? Take a word that comes to mind and reflect for a moment on what it means to you personally. For example, you might have been attracted to the words, "He approached." Ask yourself what they mean in your own life. How do you feel when you imagine Jesus approaching you? Do you trust him? Do you want him to approach you in this place? How can you allow him to approach you in the places you desire healing?

Resolution: St. Therese of Lisieux said, "For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy." Ask God today to teach you to pray. Ask him to help you turn towards Heaven with a cry of love throughout your day. What practical thing can you do this week to look towards God and let him approach you in his great love?

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 07 February 2021 Job 7:1-4, 6-7. Psalm 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6. 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23. Mark 1:29-39. Pursuing Jesus. After curing Simon's mother-in-law, Jesus, standing at the door, is teaching, healing, and casting out demons. Then, leaving at dawn, he goes off alone. Simon and the boys, pursuing him, find him praying and plead: "Everyone is looking for you." Since I am looking, where will I find Jesus this week? What teaching of his do I need to hear? What healing? Where and when will I make time for praying?

Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Collection next week. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/ccee

The University of Dayton's Virtual Learning Community for Faith Formation (VLCFF) offers a variety of online formation courses to help with catechist formation and general ongoing adult formation and enrichment. Registration for the next cycle of courses is now open. This cycle runs from February 21 – March 27, 2021. Deadline to register is February 17. Visit <https://www.dio.org/catechesis/vlcff.html> for more information about VLCFF and how courses align with the Diocesan Catechist Formation Process.
